1. Je - sus, my Lord, my God, my All,
 2. Had I but Mar - y's sin - less heart,
 3. O! see up - on the al - tar placed

How can I love thee as I ought?
 To love thee with, my dear - est King;
 The vic - tim of di - vin - est love!

And how re - vere this won - drous gift,
 O! with what bursts of fer - vent praise,
 Let all the earth be - low a - dore,

So far sur - pass - ing hope or thought?
 Thy good - ness, Je - sus would I sing.
 And join the choirs of heav'n a - bove.

Sweet Sac - ra - ment, we thee a - dore! O make us love thee more and more! O make us love thee more and more.

Concluding Rite

Prayer To St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, protect us in our day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray, and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The beautiful hymn above has its origins in South Carolina. It is part of a collection of hymns from The Southern Harmony, composed by William Walker which has been in continuous use to this very day since 1835. William Walker was born in Martin's Mills (near Cross Keys), South Carolina and grew up near Spartanburg. This along with many other hymns we sing can trace their origins to South Carolina.

Prayer For Vocations

Lord, you call us by name to follow your path. You always bless your Church and guide your followers to become leaders who think of others before themselves. Mold us in the image of your Son, to respond to your call as Sisters, Priests, Brothers, Deacons, and Lay servants of the Gospel. Embolden us all to grow in knowing of you and allow this knowledge to open our hearts, mind and souls to your enduring call. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Greeting

Penitential Rite

The Confiteor I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (And, striking their breast, they say:) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore, I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. People: Amen.

Holy Gospel Homily

Matthew 21:28-32

Profession of Faith - Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen
