

MARCH 2022

Fr. Paul MacNeil

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Winter greetings to you all as we journey into March, the holy season of Lent and the warmer days of spring. I wanted to give you all an update on our parish's Bicentennial Campaign. At this midway point of our five year campaign we have received a total of $709,763 with $1,728,601 pledged. Thank you for your support and sacrificial giving. If you have not yet been involved, now is a good time to participate. In fact, if you do engage with the campaign at this point in time, 100% of your gift will return to Precious Blood of Christ Parish. Every dollar that you contribute will be used right here in the continuing development of our parish.

To date, Phase 1 of the campaign has been completed. Founder's Hall has been fully renovated inside and out. This is where Father Pat's Lunch Kitchen, the Knights of Columbus, funeral repasts and receptions for bereaved families, youth ministry as well as various prayer groups and other parish activities find their home. It is fresh, clean, bright and able to handle proper food preparation and delivery to our beloved patrons more efficiently and easily. The total cost of this project was $265,689.

Phase 2 of our Bicentennial Project is now being planned. Our Bicentennial committee has been meeting with Michael Walker, our architect, to discuss and plan for the renovation and enhancement of our church building itself. Included in this phase will be the expansion of our current narthex at the entrance of our church, the opening up of the wall on St. Joseph's side and the completion of the transept. In doing so we will be able to seat more parishioners as well as accommodate our choir, organ and piano. The construction of an Adoration Chapel to accommodate Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will also be included in our church renovation. To do all this work in our church, we also need to install a hidden water sprinkler system to meet the current safety codes for public buildings.

Our Bicentennial Committee will be receiving design renderings and cost estimates from our architect in the near future. We will keep you fully apprised on all developments. May St. Joseph the Worker assist us with his heavenly intercession as we engage in these parish improvements.

Your servant in Jesus Christ,

Fr. Paul

PRECIOUS WORD

Respect Life

We have welcomed new member, Gabby DeLo. Gabby is a strong advocate for the unborn and brings a youthful viewpoint to our ministry.

The Rosary for the Unborn is prayed the first Sunday of the month following the 10:30 mass in the sanctuary before the Blessed Mother or at the Monument for the Unborn, weather permitting. We pray you will join us.

Life Connections provides spiritual and material support to women facing crisis or unplanned pregnancies. Through our Outreach Committee, Life Connections has provided a Pack-N-Play, car seat/stroller, breast pump, and other baby necessities to our “adopted” mom. Our mom was extremely touched by our generosity and we know that our witness of support had a positive impact on her and her baby boy born on January 18. We hope to continue to bless women referred to us who are unable to provide basic necessities for their newborn babies.

We continue to pray for our “spiritually adopted” child. This program began on August 15 and will conclude on May 15 with the birth of “our babies”. You can view the baby’s monthly development in the parish bulletin.

Respect Life Sunday was October 3, 2021. Envelopes provided in the Narthex resulted in 101 donations totaling $9895 that were sent to Birthright of Georgetown.

40 Days for Life continues to be an important part of the Respect Life Committee. Father Paul read the Daily Devotional Intention and Prayer at mass every day during the Fall campaign. Ten people traveled to the Charleston Planned Parenthood facility to pray silently outside the fence. On October 31 fifty people stood in solidarity along Waverly Road to offer a silent witness to the pro-life movement. The spring 40 Days for Life campaign begins on March 2 and ends on Sunday, April 10. We plan on taking another trip to Charleston Planned Parenthood on Friday, March 18. All are welcome to join us.

9 Days for Life Novena was said at all masses from January 19 - January 27. Several parishioners attended the March for Life Rally in Washington, DC on January 21. On that day, Father Paul led the rosary after the 8:30 mass attended by 16 people.

We want to remind everyone to continue to pray for the US Supreme Court as they consider the Dobbs abortion rights case. Respect Life advocates are asking everyone to dedicate the 22nd of each month to pray for the rights of the unborn to be acknowledged by the Supreme Court in their thoughtful and careful consideration of this important case. A moral and just decision must be made to enable our country to be healed of this ugly stain that has permeated our country.

Respect Life Committee will be providing a simple supper in Founders Hall on Friday, April 1 followed by Stations of the Cross in the church.

Our first Stuff the Bus event last year was very successful and we pray for a continued outpouring of generosity for our second annual Stuff the Bus campaign on May 15. Parishioners are asked to bring diapers and wipes to fill the church bus to be delivered to Birthright of Georgetown.

PRAY FOR DOBBS

On June 9 PBOC will host a talk by Kathi Aultman, M.D., a nationally recognized speaker. Her compelling story is a journey from atheist and abortionist to a defender of life. Dr. Aultman is currently an associate scholar with the Charlotte Lozier Institute and a member of the American Association of Pro-Life Obstetricians and Gynecologists, the Christian Medical and Dental Associations, the Florida Medical Association and is a Life-Fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. She retired from medicine after working as a board-certified OB/GYN from 1981-2014. Early in her career, Dr. Aultman performed abortions, but her experiences eventually led her to become a staunch defender of pre-born life. She has testified extensively on a variety of pro-life issues before state and congressional bodies and state courts, and was the keynote speaker at the 2019 March for Life Rose Dinner in Washington, D.C. As we Pray for Dobbs and look forward to a pro-life decision, we also look forward to Dr. Kathi Aultman's visit. Please check out her interview on Focus on the Family.

Women's Club

Greetings from the Precious Blood of Christ Catholic Women's Club

Well what can I say about our 2022 Mardi Gras Fashion Show? Does fabulous, wonderful or spectacular come to mind???? Maybe it is because our last fashion show was in 2019?

NO I don't think so!!!!!!!!!!!!!! It was the wonderful ladies who chaired the 2022 Mardi Gras Fashion Show, Nancy Crosbie, Ann Marie Reid & Rita Foster and all of the ladies who volunteered to help make our fashion show a wonderful event. A special "thank you" goes to Carole Kaczynski, our Prize Patrol Chair. Year after year Carole has done a spectacular job coordinating our "Prize Patrol". Ladies it is not an easy job but Carole makes it seem so easy. Plus a special "thanks to Rita Foster, one of our newest members, who really stepped up and helped Carole as well as co-chaired our fashion show.

For those of you who are not familiar with our Women's Club, all of our proceeds from the fashion show goes toward our grants fund which is awarded in June, 2022. The grant recipients include our own parish, local students through scholarship help & many local organizations that aid our community from Birthright to Teach My People too many others.

I met a super lady 8 years ago & we have continued our friendship and have grown to care for each other very much. Even if you work & may not be able to attend the 1st Thursday General Meetings, you will receive emails that update you on the club's events & happenings. All of our fund raisers usually occur on the weekends.

PRECIOUS WORDEvangelization*“Put out into the deep”

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch.” Simon said in reply, “Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets.” When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.” For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.” When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

This familiar passage has much for us to unpack and ponder. Bishop Barron has this to share with us...

“We can read practically the whole of the spiritual life in the marvelous story that Saint Luke conveys at the beginning of the fifth chapter of his Gospel. Jesus gets into Simon’s boat and instructs the fisherman to launch out into the deep. How Saint John Paul II loved that saying of the Lord: Duc in altum! Most of us spend our spiritual lives in the shallows, which is to say preoccupied with the petty goods of this world: with wealth, power, reputation, and pleasure. But we are not meant for such child’s play. We are meant for the depths, for the adventure of the open sea, which is to say for the high demand of the spiritual life. Once in the deep water, Simon takes in an extraordinary draft of fishes. So it always goes in the spiritual order: when we risk a life of self-forgetting love, when we leave behind selfish obsessions, we take in life and life to the full. Coming ashore with his astonishing catch, Simon falls at the feet of Jesus and says, Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man. Just as the driver notices smudges on his windshield when he is directing the car toward the light, so we tend to become more aware of our sins precisely when we draw closer to the Lord. Finally, Jesus says to Simon, Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men. What follows from a profound experience of God and an honest confession of sin is an embrace of mission. The Lord does not want us wallowing in guilt or hoarding a spiritual treasure for ourselves. He wants us to be as effusive and effervescent as he is, giving as a gift what we have received as a gift.”

St. Thomas Aquinas speaks of the four substitutes of God: wealth, pleasure, power, and honor. To some degree we all “wallow in” these areas of temptation. But following Jesus command, being obedient to His Church, and motivating ourselves to follow Christ more and more closely will increase our Love for Him and His people. At the time of this publication we likely are in Lent. This is a wonderful liturgical season to probe the mystery and find ways to deepen our relationship with God. Many sports figures and coaches tell us the best way to remain focused is to stay with / return to the fundamentals. Here are a few Spiritual fundamentals:

- ⇒ Utilize the Sacraments: Mass (add a daily), Confession, Holy Matrimony (do something unexpected for our spouse)
- ⇒ Spiritual reading – Mass readings, pick a favorite Saint and find some writings, Encyclicals, Magnificat or Word Among Us subscription, anything that can edify our spiritual walk
- ⇒ Dialogue with and listening to divergent opinions from our own, it’s important to balance ourselves out and listen to other voices
- ⇒ Be charitable – volunteer in Fr. Pat’s kitchen, offer assistance in one of the many ministries at Church
- ⇒ Set aside daily time to be with God in adoration, silent prayer, saying a rosary

As Pope Francis declared in his address to the U.S. Congress in 2015, Thomas Merton was “above all a man of prayer, a thinker who challenged the certitudes of his time and opened new horizons for souls and for the church. He was also a man of dialogue, a promoter of peace between peoples and religions.” He also mentioned, Moses, Abraham Lincoln, Martin Luther King, Dorothy Day, as well as Thomas Merton. “In these times when social concerns are so important, I cannot fail to mention the Servant of God Dorothy Day, who founded the Catholic Worker Movement. Her social activism, her passion for justice and for the cause of the oppressed, were inspired by the Gospel, her faith, and the example of the saints.”

This next line in particular resonated as his speech was seven years ago, it sounds prophetic as we consider how divisive our world has become since this speech was given: “... there is another temptation which we must especially guard against: the simplistic reductionism which sees only good or evil; or, if you will, the righteous and sinners. The contemporary world, with its open wounds which affect so many of our brothers and sisters, demands that we confront every form of polarization which would divide it into these two camps.”

Polarization, separation, us vs. them, isolation, these are all sad outcomes from a society of two alternate camps. As Christians we must move beyond this mentality and be filled with the Holy Spirit and share the fruits of the spirit (love, joy, peace, patient endurance, kindness, generosity, faith, mildness, and chastity) with others. We shall love our neighbors as ourselves!

Marian Eucharistic Conference: Mary and the Eucharist, The Twin Pillars of the Church

Once a year I can count on being rejuvenated and renewed in spirit by one thing – this conference. Never has it let me down, but this year it led me to a new dimension in my faith, as I think it did others in our church who also attended. (Marilyn Oberembt, Erik Preedom, Linda Caswell, Ligia and Brendan Murphy and Marc D'Angelo.) We have certainly talked about it often enough since returning and even had breakfast with Father Paul so we could share with him our joy and excitement!

From the conference opening led by Bishop Guglielmone to the end, there was barely time to breathe, so rich and fulfilling were the messages we were receiving. I am a Father Calloway groupie, I admit, and each time he spoke I harvested gems like: “In the parable of the fig tree, God is the landowner, the figs are our souls, but the gardener is Mary. God has given her to us to ultimately save our souls. Renew your love for Mary!” If you have listened to Father Calloway, you can hear him saying these next lines: “Pray the rosary. When an individual prays it, it's like a stick beating the devil; when a group prays the rosary, a bunch of sticks beat the crap out of the devil!” Father Calloway, most recently known for his book, Consecration to St. Joseph, says although the year of St. Joseph is ending, we should continue our adoration toward him. Wednesdays are for St. Joseph. Do something special that day – fast, say the litany of St. Joseph, give our prayer intentions to the Sleeping Joseph. And take pilgrimages to different St. Joseph sites such as to De Pere, Wisconsin or Montreal, Canada to the Oratory.

I was introduced to Sister Briega at this conference. I never heard of her. Turns out I am now a Sister Briega stalker. (Probably far worse than a Father Calloway groupie!) This tiny nun introduces herself by proudly acclaiming, “I work for Jesus.” She led me to a deeper faith than before I entered the conference. Born in Ireland, she entered the convent of the Sisters of St. Clare at age 15. She had crippling rheumatoid arthritis. At age 24, while praying before the Eucharist, she was miraculously healed and received the gift of healing by our Lord. Since Sister Briega has a deep devotion to and love for the priesthood she, along with Father Scallon, have traveled worldwide giving retreats and healing masses to priests and to others. Her documented miracles can be found in her book, Miracles Do Happen. Sister urges us to pray for our priests. “God didn't call them because they were perfect. Many churches are closing for lack of priests. Priesthood is not a profession but a gift from God”. Other gems included: “Do not come to church to be entertained” and “The Eucharist is not an object in our hands; it is actually Jesus. You can talk to Jesus and listen to him. He loves our company.”

Matthew Leonard is an international speaker, author, podcaster, and filmmaker. He has written, produced, directed, and hosted multiple best-selling Catholic video series and is a frequent guest on radio and television programs across the country. He spoke about the Garden of Eden being a test of sacrificial love and obedience, but Adam and Eve chose themselves over God. They lost their sanctifying grace. However, the death of Jesus saved us, and Sacraments give us back the sanctifying grace lost in the Garden. Take advantage of the Sacraments whenever you can!

Fr. Glenn is a retreat director, exorcist and one of the eight founding members of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal, whose mission is to save the materially poor. His words of wisdom included, "Our destiny is to be divine, and that's the offer of a lifetime!" "Sin is always paid for, either here or in purgatory." And "Sacrifice is at the heart of all interior and exterior life. It's part of our DNA. Make your sacrifices now. Don't go it alone. Get more people involved with things like group novenas, rosary groups. Be a village and do these things together. Pray with others." Lastly, "the difference between a house and a home is FAITH."

Father Jeffrey Kirby, STD, is a Papal Missionary of Mercy, the Pastor of Our Lady of Grace Parish in Indian Land, South Carolina, and a Senior Contributor to the Crux news site. We at PBOC are very familiar with this dear priest. He spoke about what it means to be a disciple of Jesus in the 21st Century. "Never forget the moment when you first met Him. Come back to your first love!" He also advised we "get to know the saints as they cheer us from the sidelines on our faith journey." He remarked that "every home has a mother – Mary." Get to know her. Grow in your love of her.

As always, this conference brings an A Team every year. Please start looking this spring for the announcement of the next fall conference. I promise your faith will be ignited and your love for Jesus will grow.

Precious Deliveries Holiday Food Drives

It was a great feeling to be able to resume our traditional procedures for our Thanksgiving and Christmas Holiday Food Drives. The new drop off process at the PLC was implemented, was well received, and sped up the collection of hundreds of bags of donated foods. We sincerely thank all that volunteered in any way with this ministry, providing food to 80 families in our local community.

We are kicking off our Easter Food Drive with bag distribution after all Masses on March 26 and 27.

As many of you have seen firsthand, helping out with this program is a very humbling experience. Your help will be needed whether it is bag handling, food unpacking and sorting, or delivering personally to area families. If you can give us a little time, we need help with unloading before all of the Masses (April 2/3). During the Masses on April 3, all bags need to be unpacked, sorted, and divided among the 80 families. Saturday morning, April 9th at 9:00 AM, bags are personally delivered to local families. Once again, we invite you to participate in any way! Please reach out to us to be added to our volunteer list or if you would like more information.

Meals on Wheels

The volunteer program for Meals on Wheels in Pawleys Island and Murrells Inlet is back. Starting on Thursday, February 10, 2022, meals will be delivered to those in need of at home deliveries. The new schedule will be once a week on a Thursday. Small boxes containing five meals will be brought to families in need. Food is picked up at the Waccamaw Regional Recreation Center on Duncan in Pawleys Island at 9 am so all recipients receive in time for their lunch. Volunteers choose a Thursday that suits their schedules, usually once a month for about 2 hours. Due to the pandemic, this program was temporarily put on hold. Needless to say, we are excited to have this ministry active again. Volunteers are always welcome. Coordinators for this program are Maureen and Mike Stuart 704-458-6760.

NCYC

Fifteen of us attended the National Catholic Youth Conference in Indianapolis in mid-November. It was a great opportunity to witness thousands of other high school youth across the country have a desire to live out their Catholic faith. The 3 day conference was packed with speakers, expos with different catholic organizations, an incredible mass that filled half of Lucas Oil Stadium (The Colts football stadium), frequent adoration and confession and exploring downtown Indianapolis.

Mercedes Obrien's experience at NCYC:

"One of the highlights of my year was being able to attend NCYC. Being surrounded by thousands of youth pursuing Christ's love was something I'll never forget. The speakers and Eucharistic adoration inspired me to live a more Christ-centered life. It was such a blessing to learn more about the Faith while having a really fun time!"

Early Morning Prayer Grind

Besides meeting on Sundays, our high school group meets once a week (Early Morning Prayer Grind) for scripture and virtue discussion either at Starbucks or Parlor Donuts. It gives our group an opportunity to really dive deeper in the faith together as well as armor up by starting the day with prayer before heading to school. We are currently studying and learning more about the Mass.

Manny Marcantoni's on Early Morning Prayer Grind:

"The morning prayer group is a time where the members of youth group can come together and start their center their day around Christ as a community. This time we share is so important to not only learn about the ins and outs of our faith, but to grow together as a family. Centering our days around Christ is essential and being able to do it as a community allows for accountability and a broader understanding of the faith and the Mass."

Middle School

Middle School students meet at the PLC's on Sundays 9-10:15 a.m. Our group has been having discussions and learning on different lessons based on the liturgical calendar. A tradition that our group has established when we meet is to select a saint card every couple of weeks. It is encouraging to have 4 committed high school students involved with the middle school faith formation.

Upcoming Events:

The Pancake Supper fundraiser will be taking place March 29th from 4:30-7:00 p.m .at Eggs Up. We have 2 summer camps planned for this summer: Camp Covecrest and the Steubenville Conference. Thank you for your constant support for PBOC's Youth Ministry.
